

Jones Knob 4266ft Bartram Trail NC

Summary: Let the car do the climbing to this easy hike with stunning views. To get to the trail head, start at the intersection of US 64 and NC 106 in Highlands NC head north on US 64. At 4 miles turn left onto Turtle Pond Road. In 1 mile bear right onto Dendy Orchard Road. After 1.5 miles bear left onto a US Forest Service Road. The road eventually turns to gravel and climbs steeply with switchbacks ending at a gravel parking lot in approximately 1.5 miles.

At parking lot begin hike by walking northwest along the ridgeline on an old woods road passing a closed gate following yellow blazes. The trail passes through woods then crosses an open field. At the fields opposite edge (0.25 miles) bear left at fork exiting the Bartram Trail (sign-see below). The trail narrows to a foot path and ascends Jones Knob with intermittent views towards the left (west and south west). The trail reaches the summit 4622 ft at 0.6 miles. Return to parking lot along the same path.

Please Note: These web pages are for entertainment purposes. The author(s) and owners assume no liability whatsoever for any information presented here. Much of it may have factual errors or is purely subjective opinion.

Copyright 2003 - 2011 DD&G Professional Services, Inc.