

Yellow Branch Falls, SC

Yellow Branch Falls Sumter National Forest, SC short but rugged hike.

Directions to Trail-Head: From Walhalla SC drive 5 miles north west on SC 28 and bear right into USFS Yellow Branch picnic grounds. Park near picnic shelter and small vault-type toilet.

Trail Summary: From parking area follow a short nature trail south crossing Yellow Branch Creek creek several times. At 0.25 miles bear right at trail junction descending shortly to small wooden bridge. At 0.5 miles veer left crossing Yellow Branch. Ascend a small rise and then descend through open hardwood forest to creek. The trail traverses along the side of a hillside and then rises and falls cross cutting ridges. The trail is rugged and at one point it becomes very narrow, wide enough for one person. Eventually after approximately 1.5 miles the trail descends to the boulder-strewn area beneath the falls where the trail ends. Return along the same route.
